General

The Savers Friend is intended only for use by UK residents.

These Terms of Use form a legal agreement which will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English Law and you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts for any action arising out of these Terms of Use.

In the event that any portion of these Terms of Use is deemed by a court to be invalid, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Part 2 – Our Ethos

We are the UK’s leading provider of interest rate data.

we are totally independent and impartial.

We remain true to its ethical stance in every service it offers.

The savings accounts shown on Savers Friend are chosen from the whole market and selected strictly on their own merits. No provider ever pays to be in our tables.

Savers Friend is entirely free to the user.

We will not sell users details to anybody.

Part 3 – Who Pays Us

Our income comes only from those providers who choose to pay us to link to their site so that users can apply direct to them. It is easy to see which Accounts this applies to. Wherever you see the 'apply' button this means we get paid (sometimes not very much) if you make an enquiry or open that Account.
